Artifact 1: Country Website Bhutan

Overview (1 - 2 paragraphs)

Bhutan is a beautiful country, with a Lush environment, Delicious cuisine, and Unique culture. If you ever plan on giving it a visit, take a quick look at this Website! It will have most of the information you need before visiting this Gem, such as Attractions to visit, Cultural festivities, and it's delicious food to try.

Technology (1 - 2 paragraphs)

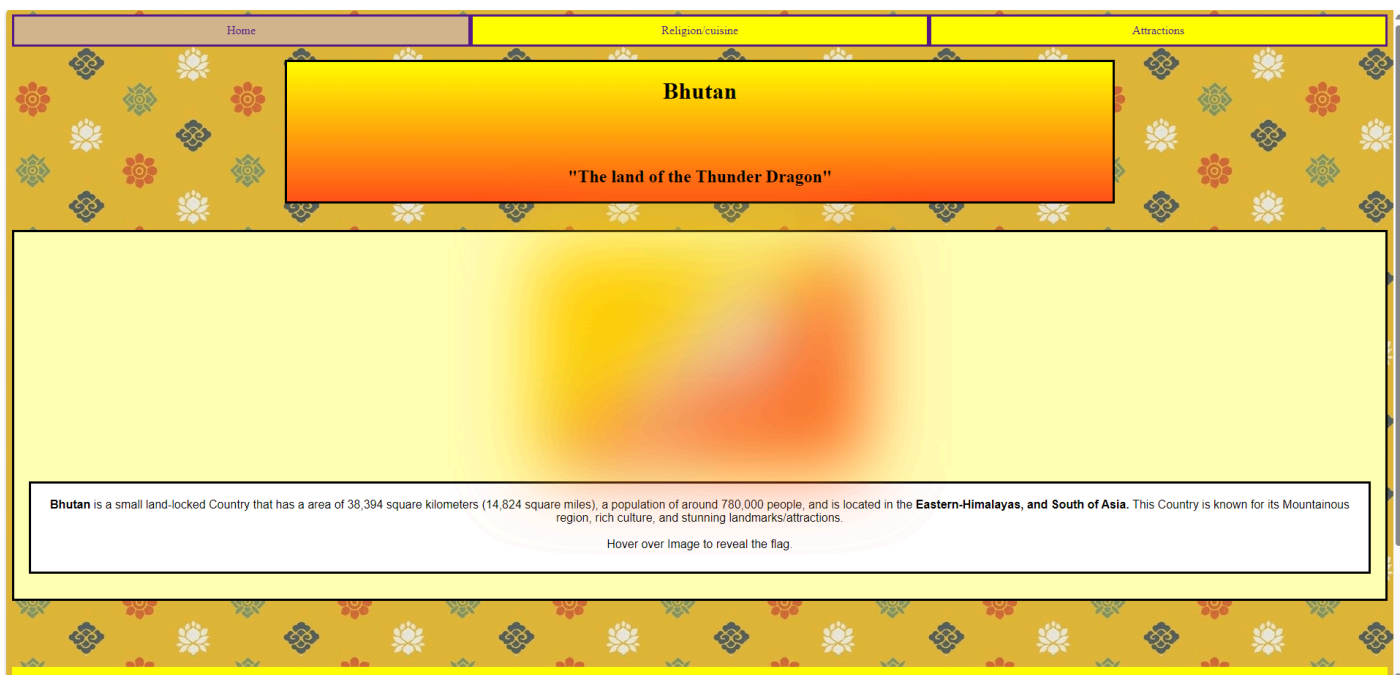

Webpages are created with the use of HTML and CSS. Various Elements of HTML and Properties of CSS were used in the creation of my Website, including Divs and Flexboxes of multiple layers. One example of this “multi layer” flexbox would be in the content of the various web pages. In the Content section of my pages, I created a flexbox div for the entire content section, with these content flexbox containers also containing flexbox divs. The first layer of flexbox will equally space the divs horizontally, whereas the second layer of flexbox makes each div and its content sort their elements up to down.

Religion/cuisine

Buddhism is the dominant Religion in Bhutan, and is practiced all throughout the Region. Buddhism had been introduced to Bhutan in the 8th century by a Indian master named "Guru Rinpoche", in which its citizens named "Buddha". Bhutan also houses various Temples and "Dzongs" that are reserved for practicing this very Religion.

Religion

The Tshechu Festival is both a major event and major part in Bhutanese Religion/Culture, and is celebrated during the Full moon. This Festival's purpose is to honor a major figure in Bhutanese history, "Guru Rinpoche", and what he has done for Bhutan. Activities in this event include Dancing, and Religious rituals/offerings.

Cuisine

Red Rice is a significant crop in the Bhutanese Region, and is grown in Paro Valley and Punakha Valley, 2 very fertile areas in Bhutan. Its taste is described to be "Nutty" and "Earthy", and is commonly paired with other Bhutanese cuisines, such as Ema Datshi.

Ema Datshi is Bhutans National Dish. It consists of Chili peppers (Ema), Cheese (Datshi), and various other added ingredients, and is commonly paired with red rice.

Attractions

The Buddha Dordenma statue is a famous Bhutan attraction created in 2015. It is a statue that represents the Shakyamuni Buddha, standing 51.5 meters (169 feet) tall, making it one of the largest Buddha statues in the world.

The Tashichho Dzong is a Temple/Fortress-like structure that serves as Bhutans Religious and Administrative center. The structure houses The king of Bhutan, the Prime minister, and various government officials. The structure also serves as a safehaven for practicing their Dominant Religion, Buddhism.

The Gangtey Valley is a serene valley attraction in Bhutan. It is famous for being the habitat of Black-necked Cranes, an endangered species Bhutan wants to conserve.
